

Keyboard Master Chart - Condensed

AKM-40

Rainbow Patterns

The Rainbow Colors and Addresses of the 7 Identical Octave Groups of the Piano Keyboard - With Their Low and High Subgroups, and With Their End Keys in White

Crack between E and F >> << Exact centerline of the piano

From the MIW Piano Student's Workshop

Condensed Piano Keyboard Master Chart

Keyboard 1 -- How the Keys are Grouped on the Keyboard -- Centered on the Green (Middle) Octave Group

Octave Group Addresses - From 0 thru 8

Keyboard 3 -- The Traditional Grand Staff with Notes and Key Names

Standard Grand Staff - With a Note for Each White Key of the Full Piano Keyboard

This diagram shows the first two octaves of the piano keyboard. The top row of keys is labeled A, B, C, D, E, F, G, A, B, C, D, E, F, G, A, B. The first octave (A-B) is labeled 'White Group'. The second octave (C-G) is labeled 'Violet Octave Group'. The third octave (A-B) is labeled 'Indigo Octave Group'. Each key has a corresponding note on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a simplified keyboard icon below it.

Black Key #/b (sharp/flat) Names

This diagram shows the second and third octaves of the piano keyboard. The top row of keys is labeled C, D, E, F, G, A, B, C, #/b, D, #/b, E, F, #/b, G, #/b, A, #/b, B. The second octave (C-G) is labeled 'Blue Octave Group'. The third octave (A-B) is labeled 'Green Octave Group'. A red box labeled 'Middle-C' points to the C key in the third octave. Each key has a corresponding note on a grand staff and a simplified keyboard icon below it.

Red Octave Group

This diagram shows the fourth and fifth octaves of the piano keyboard. The top row of keys is labeled C, D, E, F, G, A, B, C, D, E, F, G, A, B, C. The fourth octave (C-G) is labeled 'Yellow Octave Group'. The fifth octave (A-B) is labeled 'Orange Octave Group'. Each key has a corresponding note on a grand staff and a simplified keyboard icon below it.

Page is Blank