The image displays a guitar score for the first movement of Beethoven's Symphony No. 5, Level D, version 10.2. The score is presented in two systems of staves. The first system begins at measure 29 and the second at measure 43. The measures are color-coded: measure 2 is purple, measure 3 is cyan, measure 4 is green, measure 5 is yellow, and measure 6 is orange. The score includes various guitar techniques such as barre, triplets, and slurs, indicated by numbers and symbols on the strings. Vertical bars on the left of each system indicate the measure boundaries. The notation is a simplified representation of the original musical score, using circles and lines to denote notes and techniques.

The image displays two systems of guitar tablature for the first movement of Beethoven's Symphony No. 5. The first system, starting at measure 57, is divided into five columns labeled 2, 3, 4, and 5. The second system, starting at measure 71, is divided into six columns labeled 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. The notation uses circles and ovals on a six-line staff to represent notes and techniques. Numbers 1 through 5 are placed near the notes to indicate fingerings. Vertical bars on the left side of each system indicate specific fret positions. The background of the columns is color-coded: column 2 is purple, column 3 is cyan, column 4 is green, and column 5 is yellow. In the second system, column 6 is also yellow.
